CHARTRES CATHEDRAL

From APRIL 1st until OCTOBER 1st
- Wednesdays and Fridays at 9.30 am. -

2.000 frs
Lunch not incl.

There does not exist anywhere in Europe a religious building which can be compared to the Cathedral of Chartres. Its harmonious proportions, the extraordinary splendour of its XIIIth and XIIIth century stained-glass windows through which a mysterious light filters, have made of the Cathedral of Chartres a masterpiece of religious art of the Middle Ages.

On our way to Chartres we see the delightful Château of Rambouillet (XIVth century) which has witnessed many historical events from the death of Francis 1st in 1547, the night Napoleon spent there on June 25th, 1815, on the road to exile, to the abdication of Charles X. The Château is now used as the summer residence of the President of the Republic.

We also pass by the Château de Maintenon, built during the Renaissance period, and bought in 1674 by Louis XIVth for his favourite, Françoise d'Aubigné, who later became the Marquise de Maintenon. Return to Paris at 7 p.m.

CHANTILLY

From APRIL 1st until OCTOBER 1st
Every Thursday at 9.30 a.m. —

1.500 frs
Lunch not incl.

We leave Paris via St. Denis with its Basilica (XIIIth century) where nearly all the Kings and Queens of France were buried.

We pass through Ecouen, Luzarches and reach Chantilly.

Visit of the castle built in the 16th century, residence of the Montmorency and Condé families. The Grand Château was built in 1876 for the Duc d'Aumale.

Return to Paris through the Chantilly Forest, Louvres and Le Bourget Airport.

LISIEUX

From APRIL 1st until OCTOBER 1st
Every Tuesday at 8 am. —

2.500 frs
LUNCH not incl.

Leaving Paris by the Seine Valley, passing through Mantes, Evreux, where the first Norman style houses are to be seen, then reaching Lisieux for lunch.

After lunch, visit of the town containing picturesque remains of Mediaeval and Renaissance architecture, the Basilica, still under construction, and the Chapel of the Carmelites Convent where one sees the shrine of Sainte Thérèse of Lisieux, «The Little Flower», as she became known. Return to Paris at 8 pm.

MODERN PARIS : Daily departure at 10.30 am, return at 12.30. Price : 800 frs

The itinerary consists in the visit of the modern and luxurious areas of the city for which vast reconstruction plans, intended to beautify the capital, were started under Napoleon III, and continued until to-day.

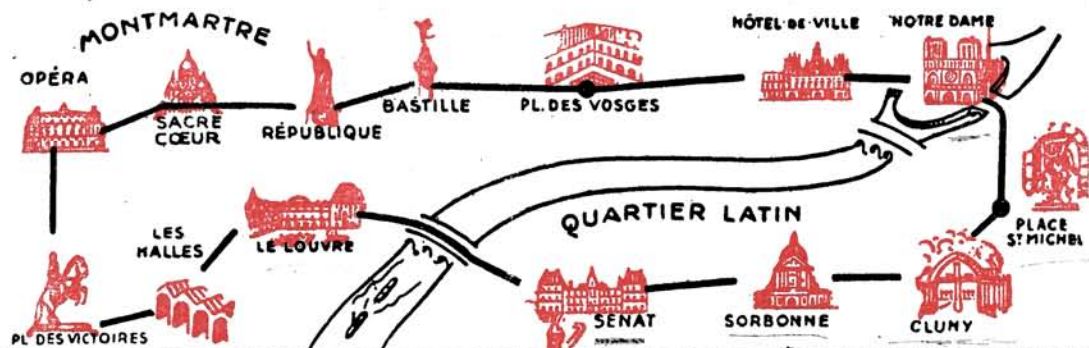

The creators of modern Paris had in mind the building of smart districts lined with spacious dwellings whose symmetry was intended to bring out the beauty of both ancient and modern monuments.

HISTORICAL PARIS : Daily departure at 2.30 pm, return at 5.30 pm. Price : 800 frs

The itinerary passes through the oldest parts of the City, with several stops enabling the visit of the outstanding historical monuments.

We take in the "Latin Quarter" where the University and the numerous Colleges, are to be seen. The erection of new buildings has not altered the ancient aspect of the City which still retains its historical character, thus allowing us to revive for our visitors the countless souvenirs of Paris in the past.

As a special favour towards visitors, Hotels situated in the centre of Paris have arranged for their clients to be called for. The heavy traffic in Paris making it difficult to fix the exact time when you will be called for and seeing that pick up cars are allowed to remain in front of hotels only during the time necessary for people to board the car, clients wishing to be called for are requested to be ready at least 30 minutes before the departure time set for the excursion. Once the pick-up cars have left, clients will be asked to make their way by their own means to the travel Agency where the coaches will be waiting.

1.600 frs

From Nov. 1st until April 1st - Tuesday, Thursday, Sunday

LUNCH not incl.

This excursion is one of the most interesting among those within easy reach of Paris. Drive through the fertile region of Brie to Melun, renowned for its cheese. We then reach the famous forest of Fontainebleau covering an area close to 43,000 acres. Fontainebleau is reached for lunch, after which we visit the castle constructed by Francis 1st in the 16th century, and restored by Napoleon after the Revolution. The interior decoration is positively unique and is further enhanced by the marvellous tapestries and authentic furniture dating from the 17th to the 19th century. Return by way of Barbizon, home of celebrated painters such as Millet (The Angelus), Rousseau, and where Robert Louis Stevenson wrote "Forest Notes".
